

My dear Professor,

I received your letter it on to Mr. Smith, to be taken to Canby.

For myself, you may have 300 lbs. of the paper, 18 in. x 24 in.
the thing I have been desiring.

Our late trip to Moosehead better botanically than I saw saw you. Of 51 species brought not contained in the Maine published by the Portland

Two of them are, I believe, new a leaf, allied to C. crinita with a very distinct perigynium from Col. Ohney; the other, a my specimens of that species at all approaching it. If you a few moments from other labors give me your opinion, I shall send you also Aspidium fragrans
