

Dallas, Oct 10

Doct. A. Gray,
Harvard Univ.

to send me more of your valuable botanical contributions; in fact any work from your pen that can help me in my studies will be considered a great favor to me. that I will pay for the best of my ability.

your most obedient
J. Presbury

Dear Sir.

During your absence,
kind enough to send me my plants, with the exception I hope your numerous occupations prevent a looking over my collection and in-will receive the names of liberty to call your attention no 303 and 304. also 3 others, confounded under the name Woolson, and that I consider species. I have also a few of but, I present, will post-send you next specimens

I write from August 2 trip to our western counties of Johnson, Hood, Van Brown, Eastland, Stephens, Y and Carroll, unfortunately lost in June and drought
