

New York May 15.
1855.

Dear Sir

Your ~~est.~~ favor of 12th inst. came to hand.

Your orders go to Germany by to morrow's mail

Pitzgels' Iconum
just arrived, goes in a few days.

No returns yet from antiquarian orders sent out for you. This should not prevent your marking the same works again in other catalogues, in order to secure such works as might ^{not} have been obtained from former orders. We will see that no duplicates shall be purchased. If practicable please give such duplicate rows a mark differs from fresh rows.

We are confident Messrs Little M. & Co will find it in their interest (as it would be no doubt for the Harv. Univ.)
to transfer those antiqu. orders to us, as our arrangements in that particular line are no doubt superior to theirs.

Respectfully yours

P. Westermann
