

Davis Ch - Admiral

Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department.

Washington, Dec. 10th. 1863.

My dear Professor & friend;

The statement contained in your letter of the 8th. I find upon examination is very full and satisfactory. - Your memory has served you faithfully.

There is yet in my possession one thousand dollars for the botanical report; and also one hundred and forty four dollars for drawings.

But there seems to be an omission in your statement; you do not speak of any compensation for your Superintendence, and other services - How is this?

We find it necessary to leave all the business and work of the Expedition at a stand-still, except the charts which we are now engraving, and some copying -

But I trust that at no distant period, we may be authorized to ask for an appropriation to publish the collections in natural history -

Yours very cordially, and faithfully,
C. H. Davis -

Professor Wm Gray.
Cambridge.
