

Ps. all Amos greetings to y-& Mrs Gigg-

Woodhurst, Fallowfield, Manchester

13 Dec 1991

Dear Professor Gray,

We were all very pleased to receive your note of having arrived at home - and my wife, when she returns will embrace it in her album - She is now away in London -

You and Mrs Gray, are, I hope just planning yourselves for another to England to be - by letter kind - send to U.S., I move that in the autumn - of 1880 a M.D. of Chicago - an advertisement into seat as one that is to that as a letter to be for London more change still they followed as to B. and I used the - S. - see, if you have indicated a one of on - 22 - 1880, there are other goods which is there is some - because they into London waiting to move from J - from him

J. P. - 1880 - 1880

flint to the old country - and I shall look forward to seeing you both 'Somewheres' as the Lancashire rustic say - If you go to S. Africa next summer we may meet for I have been asked to see to the diamond fields, and my habits go - There Min and geology are at one -

We have had three princes at the College today - Khan (not of Pilgrims Progress) Leford, Alfred - and they came with soldiers and hunters and a big crowd - and spent much of my lecture -

I have two reading Mrs. Whitel's England without a wall - and agree with his entry - this new of the

Nick's Picture and in the New England then a huge race the the old England - when there he says that the America was one town (not of a frontier world) to send America h. d. story

Dawkins, William B. 1881. "Dawkins, William B. Dec. 13, 1881." Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/221834>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/255111>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.