

Sept 23. 1891

Sereno Watson, Esq^r.

Sir

I am sorry to trouble you on such a small matter but I am deputed to read a paper at the Royal Hort Society on Helianthus and I find there are no authentic specimens of H. lactiflorus ~~scapellatus~~ in the Kew Herbarium. I should be much obliged if you could give or lend me a really authentic specimen it would greatly assist in arranging the dozen or 20 of forms between lactiflorus and H. rigidus now so common in English gardens I read my paper on the 5th October.

Pardon my troubling you in this way, and if not possible please do not trouble to reply but believe me

yours faithfully

J Dewar
