

New Haven Feb. 13. 1890

My dear Watson.

Thanks for reminding me that it was Thurber who wrote the grasses for H. Cal.

I will either cancel that half-page of my M.S. or put it into a different shape. This use of the new terms for upper & lower palea was the only thing I had ventured to criticise, & my criticism was not at all severe - I had made a point about the senior editor having apparently

"yielded gracefully to the junior in this thing;
while in retaining the Gymnosperms in their old place the yielding, if there was any, has been the other way" -

I will see that it is eliminated.

Yours very sincerely

Daniel C. Eaton
