My dear Mr. Watson:

Podroscadium has come safely to hand, & will be tenderly cared for & returned.

Your query whether one of the sp.
is our Pimpinella we can answer in the negative, but external resemblances are great. There is a great deal of mixing in collections, & the whole thing is puzzling just yet.

Yrs. as always

John M. Coulter.
