

John De Gray
Very faithfully
H. H. H. H.

Sir Henry Acland

University Museum, Oxford,
Department of Medicine and Public Health.

Oct 24, 1881

My dear Dr. Gray,

I cannot let the Post go forth without a line of fraternal thanks for all your kindness, and patience - not to say also your instruction.

The time you have now to be put over, I have, on account with difficulty from some last days in England, and I have some good news of English creation. But I hope within two days Gray will personally with have been the work, and that you will reach here soon in fine weather to accompany me on the way home.

Please give my respects
to Professor Williamson, and with 3 kindest-
wishes to his family

I am,

Acland, Henry W. 1881. "Acland, Henry W. Oct. 24, 1881." Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/221343>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/258716>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.