

15 Nov<sup>re</sup>. 1856

My dear Professor

The first 3 volumes of the Giornale botanico were sent you by Dr. Orsiccari, and you must apply to him for the missing number / Dorico Degolaia, 48, Firenze /; or indeed I shall write to him myself to-day about it. The succeeding volumes were sent by myself, after I had become the editor, the IV and V I sent by post as far as I can recollect, and will send again immediately the 2 missing numbers. the VI and VII I forwarded to the Libraria through their agent in Italy the bookseller Koepli at Milan, so pray enquire about them, and if they have not been received let me know and I shall send them again.

I don't well understand the request of yr friend the Editor of the American Naturalist. If he wishes to have another copy of my Giornale besides the one I send you in exchange for his, I shall willingly send it to him; as also all preceding volumes from the 11th day let me know more exactly.

Believe me

Yours sincerely
T. Carol

Many thanks for the continuation of yr. anatomical contributions.
