My dear Professor Gray

A few days ago a package was forwarded to me, containing a set of some of yr works for our Botanical Museum. I need not say that the gift, as valuable as it was unexpected, is gratefully accepted, and will I hope be turned to good use. I am not aware whether you have all the works published by Turbatore; if not, we might present you with some, viz: the Flora Italica, the voyage to Scandinavia, the monograph on Coryn,

With best regards believe me

Sincerely yours

T. Carmel
