

Prof. S. D. Watson

Herbarium of Harvard University

Botanic Garden

sent across river Buckthorn House located at the village Jan. 28th 1890

I ask if it is O. hastata, and if so Dear Prof. Watson -

I received your letter yesterday, & thank you for the trouble you have taken about the Book - I suppose there is nothing to be done but to let it remain as it is - In regard to Mr. James' collection of Umbelliferous, I should like to have them added to the Herbarium of Harvard University, but my children felt that they could not give them outright - If you think the College would make any offer

I will consult them about it -

I should meanwhile be very glad to have you open any of the boxes, & examine whatever you require - The whole correspondence with Desnoeux & the original notes are in one of the cases I believe - One box which is marked "only to be opened by Dr. Gray" contains some mess & private papers connected with botanical affairs, which I should prefer to have remain intact at present - every thing else you are quite welcome to have free access to -

I think you will remember that you valued the collection of mosses at my husband's death at $1,000 - I dare say that my children would be quite willing to accept $500 for it - Mrs. Thorp has so expressed herself -

The Christmas tide brought to our home a fine little boy, Mr. & Mrs. Thorp are rejoicing in the acquisition -

I have some expectation of making a visit home next summer, as I was disappointed of making the trip last year as I intended -

Wishing you a Happy New Year

Believe me truly yours

Elizabeth James -

January 1st 1862
Dear Friends
I am sorry to say that we have had a very bad winter here -

James, Isabella Batchelder. 1890. "James, Isabella B. June 18, 1890 [to S. Watson]." Asa Gray correspondence
