

Linnean Society,
Burlington House, London, W.
(Decr 28th, 1876.

Dear Sir,

In accordance with your instructions, I forward the acc<sup>ts</sup> for the current volume of the Botanical section of our Journal, forwarded to the Horticultural Society, Boston, the Columbia College, New York, and to Prof Eaton; all charged at the very considerable reduction at which you, as a Foreign Member, are entitled to purchase them. <sup>(together £1.11.6)</sup>

I am afraid they should have been sent in long since, but

but I have had a very busy time of late, and have, moreover, been very unwell, which must be my excuse for the delay.

With kind regards, and wishing you many happy
new years

I remain,

Yours very truly
