

Asa Gray M.D.

Sir

The President & Fellows of Harvard College have received, with great pleasure, notice of your acceptance of the Fisher Professorship and submit entirely to your convenience your time of commencing your connexion with the institution, provided it be not delayed beyond the commencement of the next Academic year viz. 1st of September next. The State both of instruction in the University, in that department and the advanced season of the year, enable them to place the period of your connexion at your own discretion & convenience; at the same time they will be gratified should circumstances permit that it should be immediate.

Respectfully
Yours &c
