

Linnean Society
Burlington House, Piccadilly.
London. W.

Sir

I am directed to return you the thanks of the Linnean Society for your present of the Manual of the Botany of the Northern United States, by Asa Gray. 6th Ed.

which has been received, and deposited in the Society's Library.

I am Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

W. J. Hooker
Secretary.

Sereno Watson, Esq.

P. J. Saw

Mr. Gann's letter has just come to hand, the volume, for which we now thank you, reached us this afternoon. I have given instructions that the parts you require, shall be sent tomorrow, and the General Index.

I take this opportunity to say that you have been proposed as a Foreign Member of this Society, and the election according to our
By-laws, will take place on May 1st.

The revision of the Index is progressing as fast as the overwhelming nature of the task permits. The mass of false references which require correction, is vast & disheartening; but I plod on in hope & getting to the end some day.

With kind regards,

I am, Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Wm. Jackson Esq.

Jackson, Benjamin Daydon. 1844. "Jackson, Benjamin D. undated [to S. Watson]." Asa Gray correspondence
