

Malden Sept 4

Dear Mr Davenport

I recd the pkg containing your letter book & newspaper several days ago and ought ^{to} have replied at once for the reason that you are such a dear sensitive old boy.

I have no doubt you have had all sorts of things about keeping the book, but I in fact had forgotten all about it, but if I had not should have thought nothing of it.

I looked for you last Wednesday for they said you were coming, but you failed us. We had a very small ~~time~~ party but a pleasant time. I had to come away on the 2-30 train, the rest came down about 6 o'clock. I want to go to Reading again. I think there is good sketching there. So you know I am trying very hard to sketch, and Mr Bicknell spoke very high praise of one I did lately, which I will show ^{you}. I will try to see you soon.

Yours Truly
Henry D. Moody

This letter is
I believe I am always in a hurry.
very like a school boy's.

Moody, Henry Loring. 09-04. "Moody, Henry L. Sept. 4 [no year]." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/251757>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/268380>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.