

Charlotte, Vermont.

18. Feb., 1890.

Dear Mr. Seane:

Please accept my thanks for your "Notice of Asa Gray."

By his encouragement of my botanical journeys, by the direction which he gave to these, by his thoughtfulness and kindness in providing me with the means for prosecuting them Dr. Gray was to me more than a friend — rather a father. So all that you can tell about me whose memory I revere is precious to me. I have the portraits distributed by the botanical journals. Have you a photograph which you think better?

I am glad that I was able to send you a few acceptable specimens. Had I found more of your desiderata, I should surely have included them in my package. My specimens were without-fruit.

Yours faithfully,
C. G. Pringle.
