

Charlotte, Vermont.

23, Feb., 1890.

Dear Mr. Deane;

Accept my heartiest-
thanks for the best photograph of Dr. Gray
that I ever saw; and for one of Mr.
Watson scarcely less prized; for you were right in believing me without
one. Now I wish that I had yielded to my impulse to ask for yours.

As for my own, I must get a new supply before leaving home again,
when you shall have one.

Yours faithfully,

C. G. Pringle.
