

Since then to me - I know I must be an awful trouble to you - But it means either comfort to your nerves, or trouble perhaps of torture, if they had been lost - If you will explain to W. R. R. or more, and hope the package was undisturbed, of course it is simple
the forms - I do not want the forms - They form

103 SOUTH STREET
NORTHAMPTON, MASS.

My dear Mr. Deane.

I decided yesterday that my troubles in regard to the worst forms would mean one, like I reached the worst fields beyond the swelling floods - And I was sorry, if there were forms there, they would be far from troubles - I am this young who knows my form - Came to me yesterday to say that

The package I was to give to Smith College, was lacking, I nearly collapsed, Every thing else was - done, and they had all been sent to their destinations - Then your letter came, and I thanked God a hundred times with courage - as I remember that I sent the first package out, long ago to Dr. Fernald himself.
and now I had sent ours, to my Dr. Robinson -

Of course he did not want a second sub. any more, than I wanted him to have the one for Smith College.
His sub. has left till the last, as it had not to be sent away, and I could take our time.
Will you add to your Wendell, Knickerbocker, toward the university me, and wishes the best. and

Love to you both, and Eager to hear again,
I am faithfully yours
Emily Hewitt Tenny

for Mr. Robinson, and
NORTHAMPTON, MASS. that is probably now got so confused.
Sent it a careful & grow here as I am doing - I seem to be losing all my old papers! But if I get this package back safely, I will not make any complaint. I knew it could not be among those which I had packed away in the same, to await my overhauling when the weather is warm - for I knew there were some but in intimate reference to scientific precedence - and the package I longed for was done up -

Now Mr. Deane, you and Mrs. Deane may laugh over this all your life - but I shall be glad if Mr. Deane should me from the people's criticism -

I can hardly have the patience to wait for developments, then to opain my package will have been opened and disposed of - but I shall go out in this pouring rain and mail my letter, so you may get it as soon as possible - With m
