

will take it into their hands & as it will be I know a great success.
H. Richardson says. God is doing a great many well untold works.
They will make you know I feel sure it will be very pleasant meeting. One Mr. Speck having said as a place of meeting - that is not very far off. If it should be a hall along with a hall from the patrol of our

of the churches
I thought they could get -
I will be coming
I will be coming
I will be coming
Concord, Mass.
May 20.
Davenport.
I went yesterday morning to see Elizabeth Weir in regard to the proposed meeting at Concord. She said she would see Mr.
& Mrs. Chambeolain. That morning she said Mr.
C. thought her husband could take no part in the matter as he would be near moving into his house &c & she had no enthusiasm herself. Mr. Hoar is a shy, retiring man & E. Weir whose name I know well says that the care of any such thing would annoy him. E. Weir who is an enthusiast herself has illness in her family which she much regrets. The Chamberlains have money, time, great knowledge of plants, lovers of fields & woods

But wait it all are peculiar in the extreme. Every one would do very things with their whole heart or nothing. I have just asked Harry Richardson - a young man who used to be with Murray Pratt a great deal - & he thinks it would be very pleasant & he will see Henry Pratt & then write you & the young people
