

54, E. 81. M. N. Y.

Dec. 20, 1880.

My dear Mrs. Davenport,

I believe the plate of the vernation of Polytrichum is in the hands of the printer in Boston. I have an application for a series of copies of from one to five hundred from a botanist who is getting up a work on ferns, but does not wish his profits discussed at present. Would you be so kind to see, and if so will you be so kind as to learn what the printer would charge for one two three four or five hundred copies on paper such as that used for the Bulletin?

I have some notes from Eaton for the January No.

Yrs truly,

Wm - H - Lynds
