

Watertown March 8.

Dear Mr. Collier,

Your letter has pleased and satisfied me, and I thank you for all you wrote.
Your ideas on exactitudes and treating the popular student are judiciously mine, and as long as you advise keeping var. purgata, I shall be spared an author's bill for changes on this subject.

Very sincerely yours
Elizabeth M. Denham.
