West Roxbury, Mass.

Dear Mr. Collins,-

I find on going through my papers that you have not reported to me the names of a few mosses (less than a dozen I think) that I collected in Nantucket during the spring of 1906. I collected these specimens for you and turned them over and I think you said at that time that there were one or two that were interesting but you had not made a critical examination. If you can furnish me a list of those mosses I would be much obliged. I know you must be pretty busy at this time. Do it when convenient.

The numbers you gave me opposite the names of Mrs. Flynn's mosses collected on Nantucket last summer refer to your own Herbarium or Herb. Brown University?

Yours truly,

F. S. Floyd.

P. S. I enclose your list Mrs. Flynn having given as you will see some additional data that you may wish to place on your labels. Please return it to me.

Floyd, Frederick Gillan. 1909. "Floyd, Frederick G. [May 18, 1909]." James Franklin Collins correspondence
