

Groton, Mass.,
Jan. 24, 1906.

Dear Collins:—

Miss Clark and I are both interested in your idea about the Howe Pond Camps, and I think you had better write them about rates for July 3-6, as you suggested. As we may not be present in person,
such an arrangement
could be made much easier than the usual
one. The only question

is, how many plants
we can find. My experience with such places has not been very successful, but the plants may be new to the majority of the Society.

I find that I can be in Providence Feb. 11, and I hope we can settle most things at that time. Where are the headquarters of the Somerset R. R.? Didn't the Society meet at Bingham once?

Very truly,

C. H. Knowlton
