

Hingham, Mass.,

May 8, 1911.

Dear Collins: —

Thank you for your prompt letter. I will talk it over with the committee. If the Newman is as good as the bill of fare sounds, I think that would be our best rendez-vous. I think we prefer table d'hôte, & do I understand it would be served in the private room? We ought to return at 7.30.

Now can you send me a list of 10 or 12 places which we can put on the ~~program~~ announcement? If there are enough people we could string out as far as Westerly. Then as soon as I get returns you can plan

your details.

Sincerely

C. H. Knowlton
