May 25, 1911.
Dear Collins:

The following men are sure of going with us on Tuesday

R. C. Bean, R. W. Woodward
R. A. Ware, Fernald

A. L. Gundersen, Winslow
Kriegand, Knowlton.

F. S. Collins will go on an independent trip with a companion, & Harrison & his wife are planning to combine collecting with a visit they have planned.
I suppose Floyd will go, &
Grigg & Pond are possibilities.
I think you will not need to plan more than 10 excursions at the outside, though a fair day might bring out unexpected numbers. These returns furnish a good nucleus for the trip, & ought to put at least 500 specimens to Little Rhody's credit.

I have been away all the week on unexpected business, or I should have written earlier.

Very sincerely
C. H. Knowlton
