

3 Clement Circle, Cambridge, Mass., 6 April, 1911.

My dear Mr. Collins:

Learning from one of the members of the American Academy that you are planning to attend the social meeting at Cambridge next Wednesday, it occurs to me that you might find it awkward to get back to Providence the same ~~same~~ evening. Will you not spend the night at my house? It would give Mrs. Robinson and me pleasure to have you do so.

Cordially yours,

J. L. Robinson.

Prof. J. Franklin Collins.
