My dear Sir,

I cannot understand why you should have a shortage in cards. The cards are carefully made up in packets each month by our mailing clerk at Lancaster and each second month two months cards are sent out by mail to subscribers. They have been sent to you as to the others. I can explain the difficulty in one of two ways either (1) The mails have failed to bring some of the packages. or (2) There is an error in your count.

You can test the former easily by taking the numbers of the Bulletin for 1900 and selecting titles at random in the "Index of Recent Literature" see what months are missing. If ^{any} ~~they~~ are missing I can supply them.

If on the contrary you find no months cards missing after two or three trials of each it will indicate a miscount. The bill was made on the basis of the printer's bill for printing cards checked by an actual count of the entire set of 1900 cards as they came here to the Department.

Yours is the only case we've had of complaint as to non receipt of cards.
Please test the cards ^{in this} way and report to me soon. We will make it straight if it is our fault.

Yours Truly
