

Cambridge, 21st Feb. 1862

Dear Wright,

I only got yours of 2nd Jan. from Sancti-Spiritus, and a few days ago that from Banta, of Feb. 1.

I rejoice that you are so happy and comfortable and find kind friends every where.
For the past 3 weeks I have been driven to near distraction by work, all in a heap, and I can hardly breathe yet. But I must write you a short line by the approaching Havana mail.

I will write more in detail soon, and expect to arrange so as to send you ⁱⁿ next letter, a draft for 150 dollars on Havana. For I think Eaton will be able to find some house that Drans can Havana.

I enclose some slips of news, and Eaton and I will try in this way to keep you posted up a bit while near Havana, — where, however, I suppose you will be more likely to see U. S. newspapers. We have good news now almost every day, and expect to use up the rebellion this spring.

The additional copies of Gristlebach J. L. Br. W. had, and from Kearse the publisher have not come. Nothing else either from him for 6 months, I fear he thinks we have all gone to smash, and no use to send, I have written again. I have Florence of Hong Kong for you, but I suppose you do not want to see that in Canton.

I have received from Griesbach, Pl. Wr. Cont. A, ~~trans.~~ continued thru. unpubt. i.e. - to Endogen, But we wait to get returns on the set of your later collections - which are all sent to him - (i.e. - a set of all) except Endogen, and I will send those as soon as I can; for Griesbach proposes to study them right up, and print all in one paper, this spring.

O, happy man, you are - standing over new ground, and no cares or troubles, except little daily ones, just to keep you awake.
 Ever Yours cordially
 Anna Gray
