

Harwichport, Mass.
Sept. 10, 1924

Dear Mr. Weatherly:

I am very sorry indeed to miss Prof. Ostfeld, particularly as there are many things I should like to talk with him about.
But my time with the family is so short that I ought not to plan for a trip to Cambridge before the opening of the College year. The children were promised a camping trip as soon as I came back, but it is now a week and the trunks (containing tent, &c.) have not come yet. Some

Sincerely
Mr. H. T.

W. H. C.
