

Charlotte, Vermont.

22, Jan., 1884.

Dear Dr. Gray, Do I rightly surmise, that the officers of the Atchison, Topeka + Santa Fe R.R.
take no interest in the woods of the Southwest, and decline to grant botanical travelers any favors?

I ask now, because I hear of fine rains in the Southwest, and am anxious to begin work in Mexico
next month.

If no help of this sort comes, I shall yet hope to make expenses; for there seems to be a good demand in Europe for plants from Northern Mexico.

Pardon my writing in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

C. G. Pringle.
