

Charlotte, Vermont.

5 Feb., 1884.

Dear Dr. Gray,

And as for me, it pains me that for my sake you have incurred the chagrin, if not humiliation.

Well, I propose to go ahead and do what I am able.

I think I shall soon be away.

I propose to call on Dr. Parry, who knows Mexico so well, and advise with him.

It is no small advantage to have a pass over the Atlantic and Pacific; I might soon begin there, and well devote an entire season to that country.

Grateful for your favor I am,
Faithfully yours,

C. G. Pringle.
