

Charlotte, Vermont.

12, Dec., 1886.

Dear Mr. Watson,

How is this that Mr. Tansyport has to supply you with my ferns of 1885? I surely made up a parcel of ferns, grasses, etc., — such plants as did not go to Cambridge for names, — and included it in a large box, which I sent to Dr. Gray. The box contained sets for sending over seas. Is it possible that the little parcel marked "For Cambridge Herb." went the same way?

And that you are lacking my grasses of 1885?

I still have specimens for nearly all these tickets.

Among my plants of this year you will find a few old flowers of an Agave

of which I sent you a leaf and seed-pods (No 5-84) ^{last year} I trust you will be able with this material and the description which I furnished, to find a name.

Yours faithfully,

Le. G. Pringle.
