

Readville, Mass.

March 5, 1917.

W. W. Greene Esq.,
1114 Logan St.,
Denver, Colo.

Dear Mr. Greene:

Your February 2 letter, enclosing your check for $25, has been received and I am sorry to have delayed so long in a reply. In your letter you state that your present indebtedness to me, after the receipt by me of your check enclosed with your February 2 letter, now amounts to $25. This is correct.

While I was ready to give you this balance, I think you are quite right in your desire to square this matter up. I think that this is good policy for you from a personal point of view entirely apart from the business value of such a point of view. I think that your persistence in paying this augurs well for your future success, which I wish again may be considerable.

I await your convenience as to this final $25.

Yours truly,

Kennedy, George G. 1917. "5 Mar 1917 [Kennedy to W.W. Greene]." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/172898>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/284628>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.