

CHARLES P. GREENOUGH,
Counsellor at Law.

39 COURT STREET,
Room 26.

Boston, Apr. 22, 1909. 1907.

Dear George

Our first scholar, George W. Pierce is greatly in need of assistance. You know his condition and that he is unable to support himself. His sister provides him with a room, but he is totally without means. He thinks he can live on thirty dollars a month, and if eighteen of us will contribute twenty dollars each, it will at least support him for a year. I will agree to distribute the money to him in fortnightly instalments of fifteen dollars each. He has, as you know, attempted to support himself by writing and selling books of an extraordinary character, but he has agreed to discontinue that practise. Send me what sum you can afford, and I will see that it is well employed.

Yours truly,

Charles P. Greenough

Geo. G. Kennedy Esq.
