Dear Professor

I have made a verbal agreement with Mr. W. F. Richardson, son of Naomi, for the use of the property at Willoughby for the next year, he thinks he can keep about twenty boarders in the old house, and perhaps he will do so. He is not the most reliable person in the world, his promise would not be a very valuable asset, however I rather think he will be in a position to take a few boarders.

The big house is burned -

I have got a wonderfull piece of Indian carvings, in wood, got it in Acma New Mex. one of the seven cities of Cibola, carved before the anger was in use, out of a house that must have been old in 1539, probably very old then. It is 7" x 14" x 20.4 fut. and is quite a piece of work.

Yours truly
L. B. Morris
