

NATHANIEL T. KIDDER,
P. O. and Telegraph.
MILTON, MASS.

Milton, 30 Jan 1906

My dear Dr. Henssely,

Supposing that you go to Boston fairly frequently I write to ask whether I could see you there some day next week or the week after to have a little talk about Milton Historical Society? It is not the financial aspect of the Society but certain phases of its work which I would like to discuss with you.

I have an office at 610 Sears Bldg. where I do not go very regularly, but I could meet you there by appointment, or will come wherever is most convenient to you.

Sincerely yours

Nathaniel T. Kidder
