

1911

Boston, March 17

Dear Dr. Kennedy, It is a pleasure to hear from you, even if I have to call a Council meeting to gain it. I wish it were not such a long trip from Readville to Cambridge. I cannot blame you for not caring to take it, much as your presence is needed and desired by us all.

I wish I could see you once in a while, but by day time I have to sit in my office waiting for the client who always expects me to be ready whether he comes or not; and at night I am tired. I should indeed enjoy such walks as you speak of. Perhaps when the weather is more settled you will ask me sometime, and I'll try to come if my internal machinery is in working order.

I read again the other evening Bradford Torrey's tribute to Edwin Huxon. How glad we all are that he lived among us and we knew him.

Always most sincerely

Edward L. Rand

Rand, Edward L. 1911. "Rand, Edward L. 17 Mar 1911." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/173266>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/285219>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.