

E. L. RAND
1052 EXCHANGE BUILDING
BOSTON, MASS.

[1913?]

April 10th

Dear Dr. Kennedy,

I am very sorry you could not attend the Committee meeting on Tuesday, for I had been looking forward to seeing you. Under the circumstances, however, I think you may be excused.

We really had a very pleasant time, - not the rather disagreeable time of last year. Dr. Farlow knows how to entertain, and how to stop the utterance of injudicious remarks by a supply of good food and drink.

Afterwards some of us went to the Gray Herbarium. How perfect everything is, and how wonderfully arranged.

Always most sincerely

Edward L. Rand
