

Aug 27/13

Dear George,

I arrived
home this morning
about eight o'clock
after a very pleasant voyage. I found a letter from Mrs Sprague asking me to see Henry so I went out this afternoon. He is "brain tired" and I told him he must give his brain a rest. He is demoralized mentally
and thinks he must

resign his position on the Water Board which is absurd and I told him so. If he will go slow and realize that it is not necessary to look after everything
he will be all right.

He is coming in town Monday and Mrs Sprague
is going to the Mountains and Henry is going to stay in Fairfield St. I am going to let me work one hour a day.

You need not let him know I have written you - but cheer him up
as he says you have done several times.

Send me a brief report of the August drive so I can keep a record of it.

Sincerely,
W. B. Harrison

Richardson, W. L. 1913. "Richardson, William L. 27 Aug 1913." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/173266>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/285242>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.