

C. W. SAWYER
41 HUMPHREYS STREET
BOSTON, U. S. A.

March 30, 1911.

Dr G.G.Kennedy,

Dear Doctor;

Thank you for your kind offer of a Maynard rifle; I shall be most happy to accept it.

Please tell me what you know of its service; Civil War, or Indian.

The influence of firearms upon history, particularly American, has long been my hobby. I have collected several hundred old time firearms, sporting and military, from the times of the Pilgrims to the present day; and I hope to make the collection a permanent one. The Art Museum is showing 75 or 80 of them; the rest are temporarily in storage. I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you and showing you some of them.

Very truly,

C. W. Sawyer.
