

I need not tell you,
Dear Dr Kennedy, how often I have thought of the kindness I received from you & Mrs Kennedy during my stay at Readville, It gives me great pleasure. I send you a little souvenir for your Library. I hope you will find it

useful, & that it may sometimes recall one of your near neighbors.

With my kindest
remembrances to Mrs Kennedy, & with best wishes for a pleasant
summer, believe me,

Sincerely yours,

Grace W. Rives.
