

A. E. BENSON
845 BOYLSTON STREET
BOSTON, MASS.

January 31, 1925.

Dear Mr. Deane:

I enclose herewith the newspaper clippings which you were so good as to lend me about Dr. Coolidge, with very many thanks. The proof sheets and illustrations of our St. Martin's history have gone back to the printer; and when you see the copy of the book, which I shall give myself the pleasure of sending you when it appears in May, I hope you will like the account of the earlier days. I at least

I owe very much to you if that part is successful. The manuscript has been read by five graduates, one of them Mr. Samuel C. Bennett; and though there must be some of omission, I feel fairly confident that there will be none of the other sort.

I haven't yet got out to see you. My work for the last three months has overwhelmed me, and for a short time I caved in a little;
but I am expecting a little leisure, & shall surely get out to Cambridge
before the summer. With many thanks for all you have done for us, and kindest regards,
Sincerely yours, A. E. Benson.

Benson, Albert Emerson. 1925. "Benson, A. Emerson Jan. 31, 1925." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164242>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/288454>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.