

845 Baylston St.,
Boston, December 24, 1925.

Dear Mr. Deane:

Very hearty thanks for your letter and the enclosed greetings, which I reciprocate most cordially. It was certainly a great pleasure to see you at Bob Green-ough's - he and I were classmates, as I think I must have told you - and when and if my work allows - for a job has turned up just in time to spoil all but the day itself - Dec. of the vacation,
- I shall get out to Cambridge in hopes of having another and a longer chat.

With the best of wishes for the New Year, & a happy Christmas, -

Sincerely yours,

A. Emerson Benson.
