

I was sorry to read of Dr. Howard Garrison's death recently - A. B.

as Cordelia - Mrs. Blackwell equally well dressed for Rosalinda - I remember Mr. Beldens costume but at this moment cannot recall the character he represented. Mr. Winters as Malvolio was excellent - and many others which just now I fail to remember - Mrs. Demeritt as the nurse was good too - (I was called away just here and went on a long drive and now it is late afternoon - We are in the air the most of the time and when Mrs. Savage and I go in the light carriage I do the driving and the other day I drove alone eight miles ^{in all} out and back - The horse is a fine brother and not afraid of anything. The Automobiles are a great bother - the other afternoon we counted the number of times I had to turn aside for those we met & those that passed us and there were 80 of them - My love and best wishes for Mrs. Demeritt and I hope some one can give you more information than I have been able to do. Yours - A. B. Black-

Cambridge - Mass -
September 18th 1912 -

Dear Mr. Deane -

Yours of the 16th inst. came to me last evening. You see I am still on Cape Cod & still enjoying it and am not just sure when I shall return to Cambridge as my friend likes to stay here as long as she can and last year it was the last day of Oct. when she closed her home and departed for her home in Boston - Your letter bears the stamp of Cambridge Oct. 16th 7 p.m. and it was promptly forwarded by the postman having my address - We have two mails here one reaching here at 10.30 a.m.

the other 7-30 p.m. - The first mail from her leaves at seven a.m. and I am afraid that I can't get this to the office as early as that but hope it may reach you by the early delivery tomorrow at the latest or possibly, though I doubt it by the last delivery this evening -

I was intending to reply to yours of August-eleventh soon and will now reply to both - It was so kind of you to answer mine to Mrs.
Deane. I know how much her time and strength are taxed in the care of those dear to her and am so sorry to learn of the fall which must have caused her pain and disabled her for some time - I am glad that she can move about now -

I agree with you regarding Charlie Roffie's death - When I read it, I said "that is a blessing, that he has been taken out of this world - I have heard from his wife and expected to see her a few days ago but her plans were changed and she left Buzzards Bay for New York sooner than at first planned -

Regarding the desired information of the proceedings of April 23rd I am sorry I cannot tell you anything in detail - Mrs. Embrake did not write or give me any account - I would be very glad to aid you if I could remember distinctly - I remember Prof. Gay with white hair and beard as King Lee - and Mrs. Belden most perfectly continued

Blish, A. 1912. "Blish, A. Sep. 18, 1912." Walter Deane correspondence
