

[from HL]

Middlebury, Vt., Nov. 19, 1919.

Mr. Walter Deane
29 Brewster St. Cambridge.

My dear friend:-

It has occurred to me this morning that you had probably never seen my papers on Viola and its hybrids that appeared in the Bulletins of the Torr. Bot. Club, N.Y.--a Journal in former days not much read at Cambridge. So I have selected three numbers that I thought might interest you in connection with the topic discussed in my rather dry letter of yesterday. It will at least indicate how much study I have given to this subject in the past. I think the drawings for the plates by Miss Mary E. Eaton, an English artist, are admirable. Please keep these papers as I have several extra copies, and don't return the two recently sent you till later.

I am at work writing labels for my California violets. I usually poison specimens with an alcoholic solution of corrosive sublimate. I think I should send them with mounting paper.

With kind regards,

Ever yours faithfully,

Ezra Brainerd.

Brainerd, Ezra. 1919. "Brainerd, Ezra Nov. 19, 1919." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164242>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/288537>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.