Mr. Walter Deane,
29 Brewster Street,
Cambridge, Mass.

My dear Mr. Deane:-

The large accumulation of correspondence during my long absence in the Orient has delayed this reply to your inquiry regarding the text of the Underwood ^{book}. I wrote the book in the unengaged portions of the afternoons of two months, and I was obliged, therefore, to push it through in such haste, before leaving for the East, that I fear it probably contains more such errors as you have kindly brought to my notice. You are quite right. "Position one" on pages 78 and 86 should be "position two"; likewise at the top of page 296, "first pylon" should be "second pylon".

It is very gratifying to learn that you have found pleasure in the views and the book, and to know that it is of some use. Thanking you for calling my attention to the errors, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dic. JHB:H
