

April 26, 1928.

Dear Mr. Keane:

I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate your interest and efforts in securing for me, an interview with Mr. Endicott. He talked with me and then introduced me to the secretary who has charge of employment in other departments, as he said the men employed in the Bursars Office were older and more experienced.

There is no opening at present but I was assured my application would be considered in its turn.

Again I thank you for your kindness and hope I may have the pleasure of meeting
you soon, I am.

Sincerely yours
William Brown.
