

Cummaquid - Mass.
September twenty second -
Dear Mr. Deane -

I think I made a mistake when I wrote that Mrs. Embury did not send me a list of the characters taken at the long to be remembered last meeting of the Shakespeare Society - I recall my desire to have the list and of receiving it and of shutting it into the copy of the play from which the quotation I said to you was taken - I am, as you are still from home, my house is closed so I cannot get it for you and I am very sorry! It dawned upon suddenly that you were right and I hasten to recall my mistake - I am surprised that it escaped me but; I suppose the moment I received it I put it in the book and had so many things to think about in connection with getting ready to leave home that it went entirely out of my mind - I hope you have been able to find some one to aid you, or, perhaps Mrs. E. has returned by this time - My love to dear Mrs.

Deane and my best, very best regards to you - I look upon you both as very dear friends - A. Bliss -
