

Cafaro.

3rd Nov. 1922.

Dear Mr Deane.

I received your letter, and I am very glad sorry that I kept you waiting so long for an answer. I sent you a few humming birds' nests by Fred but he told me that when he went to see you, he forgot to give them to you. I have two nice nests for you, a very large barn birds nest & a smaller nest which is made by the "Varange", a smaller species of the Orioles. I am saving all the nests that I can find and when I have enough I will send them to you.
I thank you very much for the nice book which you sent to me by Fred. I read both "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and "The Little House" which you gave to Fred, I enjoyed both of them very much. Daddy is teaching me to play the violin now, and I am getting on well with it.
Sometimes in the evenings Phammy & I play
the piano and violin, & sometimes Daddy plays his violin too. So although we are far out in the country, we get a good deal of enjoyment in that way, and I am quite happy here.
Hoping that you are quite well again.
Yours very truly
Cafaro.

Carr, Gladys V. 1922. "Carr, Gladys V Nov. 3, 1922." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159666>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/288711>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.